

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff, vs. GRADY VAUGHN, Defendant.))))))))))	8:05CR167 ORDER
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------

This matter is before the court on the motion to continue trial by defendant Grady Vaughn (Vaughn) (Filing No. 17). Vaughn seeks a continuance of the trial for at least thirty days. Defense counsel represents to the court that counsel for the government has no objection to the extension. Defense counsel represents that Vaughn will submit an affidavit in accordance with paragraph 9 of the progression order whereby Vaughn consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Vaughn's motion to continue trial (Filing No. 17) is granted.
2. Trial of this matter is re-scheduled for August 8, 2005, before Chief Judge Joseph F. Bataillon and a jury. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between June 22, 2005 and August 8, 2005, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason that defendants' counsel require additional time to adequately prepare the case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) & (B).

DATED this 22nd day of June, 2005.

BY THE COURT:

s/Thomas D. Thalken
United States Magistrate Judge
